A1-M01-L01 - Personal Information and Classroom English: Grammar Lesson 1

CEFR Level: A1

Objective: Learners can name, identify, ask and answer basic questions in a grammar task about personal information.

1. Learn

In this lesson you will practise grammar for personal information and classroom english. You will learn useful language connected to personal information and practise be: am/is/are. By the end, you should be able to complete a short real-life task and explain your answer clearly at A1 level.

2. Teaching Focus

Focus language: be: am/is/are. Vocabulary theme: personal information. The teacher introduces the target language in a meaningful context, models pronunciation and form, checks meaning with concept questions, and moves learners from controlled practice to freer use. At A1, learners should name, identify, ask and answer basic questions with increasing independence. The lesson should use board examples, short teacher modelling, pair practice, feedback and a final communicative task.

3. Examples

- Example 1: I can use be: am/is/are to talk about personal information.
- Example 2: The learner gives a A1 answer with clear meaning and correct key language.
- Example 3: The learner checks, improves and repeats the answer after feedback.
- Example 4: The learner uses one linking phrase or support phrase suitable for A1.

4. Interactive Practice

- Choose the best sentence using be: am/is/are.
- Match the personal information phrase to its meaning.
- Build a complete answer for the lesson task.

5. Speaking Task

Speak for 60-120 seconds about personal information. Use at least two examples and one reason.

6. Writing Task

Write a short A1 response about personal information. Include the target language: be: am/is/are.

7. Homework

Write or record five sentences about personal information using language from this lesson.
